Updated Annex C of the Contract Specifications for Futures Contracts and Options Contracts at Eurex Deutschland and Eurex Zürich

Effective January 23, 2012, the Management Boards of the Eurex Exchanges decided to change the close of trading on the last trading day for index futures on MSCI Russia (FMRU) to 21:00 CET in the expiration month of March.

The adjustment will take place due to the different dates the changeover from wintertime to summertime is carried out in the U.S. compared to Europe (i.e. in the U.S. the changeover takes place two weeks before it is done in Europe). For the details, please refer to the attachment.
